

APPELLATE COURT
REVERSES VERDICT
GIVEN MISS RILEYCounty Appeal From $12,000
Damage Verdict Is Sustained By Court.SALEM WOMAN HURT
BADLY IN ACCIDENTAuto Skidded On Hill Five Miles South Of Salem, Landing In Ditch.

Reversal of the verdict given against the county last April in common pleas court of $12,625 damages, the largest amount in the history of the county in a personal injury case, to Pearl K. Riley, who sustained a broken back in an automobile accident, was ordered Friday by the court of appeals, sitting at Lisbon.

The case, which attracted interest throughout the state, was thrown out by the higher court on the grounds that the plaintiff had no cause for action when she instituted the suit for $50,000 against the commissioners before Judge Charles Worley of Harrison county, with a Jefferson county jury. The only recourse now is the state supreme court.

The accident happened after dark on December 9, 1918, when the plaintiff, accompanied by three others, was riding from their home in Salem to a dance at Lisbon. The road was covered with a sheet of ice by rain, which was freezing as it fell.

Skidded Into Ditch
The light roadster skidded on Badger's hill and backed down over a 13-foot embankment. The firm of Huey, Craver Diser & Starrs of Youngstown, who represented the plaintiff alleged that the commissioners were negligent in not placing a guard rail at this point, where they had constructed a 12-inch drain beneath the roadway.

Prosecutor Jesse C. Hanley and Assistant Prosecutor Robert Brookings, who represented the commissioners in court below and in the appeals court, argued that this court was not within the meaning of the statute requiring guard rails as the beginning of the embankment was 13 feet from the edge of the paving or the portion ordinarily used by traffic. This contention was upheld by the higher tribunal.

Miss Reilly was permanently injured in the crash her back being broken in two places, but the others escaped unhurt. Her fiancé was driving the car. They have since been married.

EVANGELIST ASSAILS
HYPOCRIT IN CHURCHChurch Full Of Stragglers Rev. Mr. Wollam Tells Congregation.

"You have substituted church membership for real regeneration, sanctification and filling of the Holy Spirit. Belonging to church won't save you. It means more to be a Christian than to just belong to church."

This is what Rev. E. A. Wollam, Cleveland, told his audience at the First Friends church Friday evening when he discussed "What's the Matter With Salem?" from the standpoint of the religious life of the community. "I believe every Christian ought to belong to church," he said.

Too Much Hypocrisy
The evangelist spoke of some of the commendable things in the churches here and stated that the people of Salem churches are alive as far as activities are concerned and then spoke of some of the charges that he believed Jesus Christ would make against the religious life of this community.

These thoughts were taken from his discourse:
"You have been drinking from the world's well until you have lost your taste for the water from the well of salvation. You are occupied in the pursuit of pleasure and fortune-getting. No man or woman is normal until he has spent a certain amount in recreation, but when fortune getting and pleasure stand between you and God it is time to give them up.

"If I were some of you fellows I would clean up or get out of the church. Too much hypocrisy. I abhor and despise hypocrisy. If there is a man smaller than the hypocrite in the church it is the man outside the church that hides behind him. I realize there are hypocrites in the church but they are not all in the church. You find them in political and social life."

Full Of Stragglers
"The church is full of stragglers who try to hold on to the church with one hand and to the world with the other."

"I believe another charge Jesus Christ would bring against the church is that it was lost its love for lost souls. Where there is no night of prayer, there is no saying 'What must I do to be saved?' The time has come for the church to wake up and move forward. My heart is pained when I see how little travail there is for lost souls."

"There is a complete cure for this situation—Remember therefore from whence thou art fallen and repent." This series of evangelistic services will close with the Sunday services.

NEW SENSATION IS SPRUNG IN PROBING
HALL-MILLS CASEWitness Summoned To Give Testimony Against Male "Roe."

New Brunswick, N. J., Nov. 18.—A new sensation was sprung in the Hall-Mills murder case this afternoon when it was learned that a writ of habeas corpus, issued to compel the attendance of Raymond Schneider, a witness, before the grand jury meeting at Somerville Monday, specifically stated that he was wanted to give testimony against "John Doe, Richard Roe and Thomas Roe."

The fact that the writ did not mention a woman's name immediately caused comment. Officials said that when an unidentified woman is mentioned in a legal document it is usually made with a woman's name such as "Mary Doe."

After having declared that he would not subpoena the Rev. Paul S. B. Hambarsky before the Sommer county grand jury investigating the murder of Rev. Edward W. Hall and Mrs. James Mills, Deputy Attorney General Wilbur A. Mott modified his decision today by saying he could not answer the question as to whether Hambarsky would be summoned.

Rev. Hambarsky, who was formerly pastor of the Hungarian Reformed church at New Brunswick, and who knew Dr. Hall intimately has made a sworn statement to the effect that Dr. Hall told him he feared bodily harm from a man named "Henry" and that he was planning to go to Mexico.

Deputy Attorney General Mott declared he was not in a position to say how much credence was being placed in the Hambarsky statement but that "everything was being investigated."

"When you can will you can" is the motto of the Can-a-Can club. It was the appeal of a year ago. It met with generous response. This year the Can-a-Can club was established and it has been very active and helpful. It has 277 members and the objective for 1923 is 500 members.

The only requisite for membership is the gift once a year of fruit, jelly, soup, vegetables or any suitable foodstuff to the City hospital. These are collected at the homes the last week in October.

Is Wounded Badly

Cleveland, Nov. 18.—Daniel H. Clark, chief of police of the Nickel Plate railroad is in City hospital today, and may die, the result of an accidental shooting at his own home last night, when city police mistook him for a burglar.

Responding to a burglar alarm sent in by a neighbor when she saw a suspicious light in the Clark residence police arrived only to be in turn mistaken by burglars by Clark, who was alone in the house. He opened fire which was returned by Patrolman Charles Rhoda.

At the hospital Clark exonerated police saying it was an "unfortunate mistake."

TAKE HOUSE POLL
TO SECURE VIEWS ON SHIP SUBSIDYReport Uncertainty As To
Fate Of Bill As Date
For Vote Is Set.

Washington, Nov. 18.—A poll of the house was started today by the leaders to get an accurate line on the certain support to be had for the Lasker ship bill. This poll will be completed by the end of next week.

With decision reached by the leaders to vote on the Lasker bill in the house Wednesday, Nov. 29, there is uncertainty as to the fate of the legislation. Returning members are protesting against being forced to go on record in favor of the ship subsidy when appearances indicate the bill is to be blocked in the senate.

Representative Edmunds, Republican of Pennsylvania, a member of the house merchant marine committee, in charge of the bill, claimed fifty majority for it before the close of the session last October. It is admitted by house leaders that the bill will not now command such a majority.

Speaker Gillett and Representative Campbell, chairman of the house rules committee, are of the opinion that the chances for passage through the house of the bill would be increased by throwing it open to changes in specially obnoxious features.

Republican and Democratic opponents of the bill are determined that it shall not pass in its present form. They are fighting its monopolistic features, some favoring legalized pooling, the possibility of foreign control through admission of foreign ships and foreign interests and the bounty of five per cent freight money to American shippers in American ships as a deduction from income tax payments.

LABOR OUTLINES
DEFINITE PLANS FOR LEGISLATIONLeaders In Conference To Discuss Methods For Work In Congress.PROGRAM TO HAVE FOUR OBJECTIVESWill Maintain a Special Legislative Committee
In Washington.

Washington, Nov. 18.—American labor today began definite plans to secure a commanding position in the nation's political affairs in 1924.

In the first meeting since the election, leaders of labor and farm organizations went into conference here to discuss methods of any legislation in congress which would be detrimental to their common interests.

The legislative program it was revealed, included:

- 1.—Abolition of the United States railroad labor board, which labor steadily has assailed as "unfair."
- 2.—Recognition of the principle of the living wage in determining wages of all workers in industry.
- 3.—Repeal of the Esch-Cummings transportation act.
- 4.—Opposition to anti-strike legislation which will be introduced in the senate early in the special session by Senator Cummins, Republican, Iowa, chairman of the interstate commerce commission.

In addition a battle will be waged by certain factions to include recognition of Russia in the program. Legislative Committee Heartened by the results of the elections, especially in the middle and far west, every effort will be extended to push this program through congress, it was stated. A special legislative committee will be maintained in Washington to carry on the congressional battle.

While the question of labor legislation is the immediate purpose of the conference, steps will be taken at the same time, it was declared, to perfect plans for a distinct farm-labor party for the next campaign. The nucleus of the third party was formed in a conference in Chicago last February, when the executive committee of the conference for progressive political action was appointed, but since then little has been accomplished in the way of a nation-wide amalgamation of all farm and labor elements.

William H. Johnstone president of the International Association of Machinists and chairman of the conference, is sponsor for the meeting here.

If the conference is successful in translating its legislative program into congressional action, the time will be ripe for an aggressive campaign by labor for important political posts, Johnstone believes.

EXECUTIONS STIR
ATTACK ON POLICYGovernment's Action Too
Harsh Says Supporter Of Free State.

Dublin, Nov. 18.—News that four youthful irregulars had been executed for possessing weapons for purposes of rebellion, led to sensational attacks today against the new stern policy of repression.

The Irish Independent, a supporter of the Free State government, criticized the government's action as "too harsh."

Republican leaders claim that the four youths named were not executed but that they were prisoners who had been killed in an attack on the Free State.

Official denial was made this afternoon that there had been any further executions. This showed that E. J. Connelley, chief military aide to Eamon DeValera, who was arraigned before a court martial yesterday, was still alive. It had been rumored that he was sentenced to death and that he probably would be executed this morning.

Annie MacSwiney On Hunger
Strike At Jail's Gate

Dublin, Nov. 18.—Crouching at the gate of Mount Joy prison, a child at her side, Annie MacSwiney, of Cork, began a hunger strike today which, she declared would continue until her sister, Mary MacSwiney, is released from the jail.

Mary today entered the fourteenth day of her own hunger strike. She has refused to eat since she was arrested during a raid by Free State soldiers upon a Republican irregular council of war in this city on Nov. 4.

Upon her arrival from Cork, accompanied by the child, Annie MacSwiney went at once to the prison where she requested permission to see her mother. The prison authorities refused.

"I will starve myself to death at the prison gates," declared Annie MacSwiney.

The wardens expressed regret, but said they were under orders not to allow anyone to see Mary MacSwiney. Annie then took up her position in front of the jail entrance.

CLEMENCEAU, HERE
TO ENLIGHTEN U. S., GETS BIG WELCOMEFrench "Tiger" Hoping To Bind Closer The Ties
Of Friendship.

New York, Nov. 18.—France's famous war premier, Georges Clemenceau, the "Tiger," arrived here today for a series of addresses in the United States by which he hopes to enlighten Americans on European affairs and bind closer the ties of friendship between France and the United States.

The gigantic French line steamship Paris, with Mr. Clemenceau on board, passed Sandy Hook into New York harbor at 2:30 o'clock but the vessel was detained at quarantine.

At 7 o'clock Jules Jusserand, French ambassador to the United States, accompanied by several attaches of the French embassy at Washington, reached the battery and subsequently embarked upon a special tug to go down the bay to greet the famous old French statesman.

Col. E. M. House, a member of the American peace delegation in Paris, and Frank L. Polk, former undersecretary of state at Washington under President Woodrow Wilson were also on the tug.

Many of the craft in the bay were dressed out in French flags and the French line pier was crowded with prominent persons, large numbers of whom carried the French tricolor or wore it upon their clothing.

Plans for the reception of the "Tiger" were singularly impressive in view of the fact that Clemenceau holds no official position and has not been in power at Paris for several years. He has retired from active politics.

Clemenceau is no stranger to the United States. He formerly taught French in a girl's school in Connecticut and at one time lived in this city. Wireless advice from the Paris premier's port said that the former premier was greatly excited over the prospect of his tour and was in good health and high spirits.

H. G. Wells Is Last
In Parliament Race

London, Nov. 18.—H. G. Wells, famous historian and novelist, ran a poor third in the parliamentary election in the London university constituency, it was revealed today by official count of votes.

Sir Russell Wells, the Tory, won the house of commons seat with 3,323 votes; Prof. Pollard, a Liberal, was second with 2,180; Wells, who stood for election on the Labor ticket, was third with 1,427 votes.

"I will remain here until my sister is released or I will die with her," declared Annie MacSwiney.

Mary MacSwiney was reported in a weakened condition and to be suffering from pains in the back. She has been transferred to a more comfortable ward.

Mary MacSwiney threatened to "kill" herself like her brother Terence, unless she was released. Her brother starved himself to death in Brixton prison in London two years ago after being arrested at Cork on account of his Sinn Fein activities.

"I will starve myself to death at the prison gates," declared Annie MacSwiney.

EFFORT IS MADE TO BREAK PHONE
STRIKE AT WINONAChamber Of Commerce Acts
As Mediator At Meeting
Friday Night.SWANEY OUTLINES
THREE PROPOSALSBoth Sides Express Desire
To Reach Satisfactory Settlement.

Initial efforts to break a "telephone strike," which is admitted to exist at the present time between Winona and Salem, were made Friday evening at the Salem Chamber of Commerce when a committee representing that body invited a discussion between Frank Swaney, district manager of the Ohio Bell Telephone company; the directors of the Winona Central Telephone company under the leadership of their chairman, J. E. Walton; and a committee of Winona telephone subscribers headed by Willis Whinnery.

R. S. McCulloch, chairman of the chamber of commerce committee presided. The other members of his committee were R. B. Thompson, A. R. Stark and Secretary Parker Lowell.

Manager Swaney reviewed three proposals which the Ohio Bell Telephone company had suggested. First, that the Winona Central Telephone company give up the territory and let his company take it into the Salem area; second, have the Winona lines cut in on the Bell lines at a switching charge of 62.23 cents a month or $8 a year; or third, and most desirable, he suggested that the directors of the Winona company make an increase in their present rates in order to cover the actual cost of free exchange between Winona and Salem.

Admit Telephone Strike

He stated that the present rates in effect at Winona were not sufficient to cover costs, and that a check of the service showed an average of only ten calls daily between Salem and Winona.

Both J. E. Walton and Willis Whinnery admitted that a "telephone strike" existed at Winona as a result of the toll charge of ten cents a call that became effective Nov. 1 after the Winona subscribers had enjoyed free service to Salem for 20 years. They stated that many Winona subscribers had said they would use automobiles to carry their messages direct from one city to the other before they would pay the new toll.

Both sides expressed their willingness to get together to arrive at a more satisfactory settlement, and thanked the Chamber of Commerce for acting as mediator. But Manager Swaney pointed out that it was up to the Winona company to take the initiative in the matter. He expressed a willingness to explain the matter of telephone costs at a public meeting to include all subscribers to the Winona company but he was told to present a definite offer to the directors and they would tell the subscribers.

Ship Subsidy

CONFLICTING reports come from Washington as to the intent of the administration with respect to the ship subsidy bill in the coming session of congress. The country is told publicly that the session is called mainly for the purpose of putting through that piece of legislation. Privatly there are rumors that the administration is not determined upon using its power in congress, and that party whip will not be cracked for the purpose of forcing enactment of legislation which involves a doctrine concerning which there has always been a marked difference of opinion in the American electorate.

It will be to the credit of the administration if it so conducts the campaign in favor of the ship subsidy bill as to cause its consideration on its merits rather than to secure its enactment by the brute force of a party majority. For the measure is one upon which there well may be wide divergence of honest opinion.

Into it there enter consideration, pro and con, either of which when stated without proper context seems unanswerable.

First of all, there is to be counted in its favor that wholly justifiable national pride which demands that the American flag shall not be banished from the high seas, but shall be seen as it was in the earlier days of the Republic, in the ports of the whole world. To that there is no counter-argument except the question as to what the nation is willing to pay for this glory.

Otherwise the question of the maintenance of a national merchant marine would seem to unprejudice student to divide itself naturally into two phases, namely political and economie.

In its political phase it has to do with national defense. It may be hoped, and it may be trusted, that this nation never again will become embroiled in a war which will make sea-carriage, as it was in 1917, a vital feature of a military campaign. But it would be unspeakable folly to ignore the possibility of such another conflict. The United States learned, when it was summoned to do its share in the struggle against the autocracy of Central Europe, that ships, and still more ships, were vital to success. It was forced to extemporize a fleet. It had thrust upon it the staggering expense of building a merchant marine in a few months. It added billions of dollars to the national debt on account of this endeavor. It constructed an enormous fleet of wooden ships, now being cast aside as old junk. It built a magnificent array of steel ships, but finished them too late for participation in the service for which they were mainly designed. Prior to their completion the nation was forced American consumer. Under complete freedom of competition among shipping lines this would necessarily throw to the cheaper service of the foreign vessels the greater part of the American business.

If American ships are enabled to compete for it by a subvention from the treasury, it simply means that from the pocket of all the people shall be taken the money necessary to keep down the cost of carriage in American ships in order that they may not be driven from the ocean.

The economist protests that this is both unjust and ineffective in the long run—ineffective because foreign nations may in turn subsidize their ships to meet unfair competition.

DOES IT CATCH YOU—right in the back?

It may be that you are mysteriously attacked by pain in back (lumbago), or limbs, "neuragic" pains—shooting anywhere. Backache of any kind is often caused by kidney disorder, which means that the kidneys are not working properly. Poisonous matter and uric acid accumulate within the body in great abundance, overworking the sick kidneys. Perhaps you have become nervous, despondent, sick, feverish, irritable, have spots appearing before the eyes, bags under the lids, and lack ambition to do things. The latest and most effective means of overcoming such trouble, is to drink plenty of water between meals, and take a single An-uric (anti-uric) Tablet before each meal for a while, or until recovered.

Simply ask your favorite druggist for Doctor Pierce's Anuric Tablets (kidney and backache remedy).

Send 10 cents to Dr. Pierce's Invalids Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., for trial package.

Many folks in town, as well as in every place in Ohio have been benefited as was Mr. Johns.

Cincinnati, Ohio—"I had been a great sufferer from backache and kidney trouble. My work is very hard on the back and I got so bad that I could hardly bend over or straighten myself up to do my work and it was an effort to get up in the morning. I was in such a state that I was willing to try anything, and did try many things. I heard of Dr. Pierce's Anuric (kidney and backache) Tablets at last and tried them. Two bottles took all the pain and kink out of me. I want to say, 'Anuric' has been all I need."—Albert Johns, 1739 Eastern ave.

BELIEVE THAT OHIO COULD FEED ITSELF

Given to estimate how Ohio would get along if thrown on her own agricultural resources, a class of 101 students in rural economics at the Ohio State university figure that, with necessary changes in crop schemes, the state could just about feed its present population, 5,759,334.

Dr. C. G. Acord, professor of rural economics, they have gone to the census and to authoritative food consumption tables and have found that Ohio produces more than it consumes of mutton and poultry products, and that there is a tremendous surplus of pork, amounting to 415 million pounds a year. The consumption of cereals, potatoes, beef, veal and fruit in the state, however, exceeds home supply.

"Assuming that a strike, disaster or invasion would cut off the state from outside aid, what would we have to do to eat as we do now, except for grapefruit, coffee and such other products as we cannot raise?" This was the problem to the class.

They figured it out this way: Re-duce pork production 312 million pounds annually. This would still leave enough pork, and turn enough corn from hog to cattle feeding to take care of the beef deficit, it would so divert enough corn to raise other crops to take care of the small grain, the potato, and eventually the fruit deficit.

"It is only an estimate," remarks Prof. McBride, "but it is as exact as an estimate can be. If we could figure on a change in food consumption 100 per cent, the state could take care of a great many more than its present population."

APPEARANCES ARE DECEITFUL is an old saying that is never more truthful than when applied to those who offer "shady" investment securities.

The personality of the promoter is usually of a confidence winning type. His arguments for the safety of his proposition sound so logical and reasonable that he often succeeds in interesting representative citizens and successful business men in his proposition.

For your own best interest and for the protection of the savings that have cost such hard work, get the opinion of experienced and long established Bankers in your community before you lend your money. They can help you determine the true value of the promoter. They have a sincere interest in the marketing of the highest grade investments and realize that losses resulting from speculative ventures hurt those who deal in sound securities.

What God Says about - A BITTER WOMAN

"Call me not Naomi (pleasant) call me Mara (bitter) for the Almighty has dealt very bitterly with me."

Oh, read the book of Ruth if you have an eye for spiritual pearls. All pearls are the result of wounds to the organism developing them. And Naomi was wounded. God hadn't dealt bitterly with her, but she was bitter at God's loving discipline and she charged Him with bitter treatment. Like many of us, isn't it?

'Twas a pretty sad case, however. The family had disobeyed God and left Israel and first, husband Elimelech dies in a strange land, then the boys marry heathen wives and both boys die, leaving the poor mother in Moab with two unbelieving daughters-in-laws on her hands. Would you have said "tough luck?" Not she, Naomi was Godly in all her bitterness. She knew that God Almighty had been dealing with her. And he had, but not in bitterness.

Mothers, you pay too big a price when you step across God's spiritual boundaries for the sake of some early advantage for your children. You may lose them, lose them in worldliness and sin if not physically, and you may become bitter.

But whatsoever you do, see that, like bitter Naomi, you come back to God's country. And with her, ah, yes, with her comes her blessing—sweet Ruth, the blessing always comes back with the wayward who turn their feet toward God. No matter what your sin and your waywardness, Christian mothers, turn around and come home to God and His people and see how quickly your bitterness will be turned into blessing.

But let's all read the book of Ruth and see all that God says about Naomi and Ruth. It's a divine love story if you have spiritual eyes to see.

*Ruth 1:20.

Daily Suggestions For Games.

NOTE—The News, realizing the importance of directing play activities and especially the mental and physical value of education through play, not only for young people, but adults as well, will publish, in these columns daily a number of games, furnished by the Social Recreation Department of National Community Service. It is suggested that readers clip these articles, and keep for future reference.

GAMES

WHAT'S YOUR CITY.

Players are seated in a circle, and every one is given the name of a city. One player stands in the center, blindfolded. The director of games calls out, Chicago and Milwaukee, "change." While they are changing the center player tries to touch one of the players or get a vacant chair. If he succeeds, the extra player becomes center player.

The game is still more interesting when the director calls "change" for four cities.

Church Built 62 Years Ago Will Be Rededicated

Built 62 years ago, the Bethel Reformed church in Knox township, has been remodeled and will be completed ready for dedication on Sunday, Dec. 3, when Rev. J. H. Gleckler, editor of the Christian World, is expected to make the address.

Ever Welcome Bags

Christmas time is the springtime of bright cretonnes when they blossom out into all sorts of ingenious and beautiful gifts. The picture shows a work or shopping bag folded and unfolded. It is merely a capacious oblong bag of cretonne, with small envelope, bound with braid, sewed to one side, and, by means of snap fasteners, it can be folded and converted into a pretty shopping bag.

POSSIBLE LIFE ON PLANETS

Existence on Moon, Jupiter, Saturn, Mercury, Uranus, Neptune, improbable, Scientists Say.

The possible existence of life on the planets has lately been discussed in a most interesting manner by American astronomers. This is a summary of the conclusions of these scientists upon the question. It is considered that the existence of a high form of life on the moon, Jupiter, Saturn, Mercury, Uranus or Neptune is extremely improbable. Although Venus greatly resembles the earth, it is generally believed by astronomers that the day and the year of the planet are of equal duration. In that case no life can exist upon it. Concerning Mars, astronomers are not agreed as to whether the much-discussed markings are canals or merely earthquake cracks. There are no permanent bodies of water on the planet. The best that can be said is that, although the temperature on Mars is very low, there may be on the planet, to a limited extent, the conditions essential to life; probably only vegetable and low-order animal life, but no beings of intelligence.

STOCKS

MARKET OPENS STEADY
New York, Nov. 18.—The stock market opened steady today with dealings on a small scale. Crucible steel rose over one point to 64½. Studebaker advanced ¾ to 124½. Reading improved fractionally to 78½ while St. Paul fell nearly one point to 39½. Piggy Wiggly yielded 1½ to 40½. Other changes were generally confined to fractions with losses and gains being about equally divided.

A feature of the market was the lack of interest in steel common, there being no trade in the market leader for the first twenty minutes.

GRAIN MARKET

Horemans Wins From Schaefer, Hoppe Leading

New York, Nov. 18.—Close on the heels of his sensational 500 to 231 victory over Jake Schaefer, the champion, last night, Edouard Horemans of Belgium will take on Welker Cochran, another American, in this afternoon's match of the tournament for the world's 18.2 ball-line billiard championship.

Horemans is now tied with Schaefer and Roger Conti of France for second place in the standing with two victories and one defeat.

Willie Hoppe, former champion, who is leading with two victories in as many starts, will face a difficult match tonight in meeting Conti. The latter has been playing fine billiards and yesterday accounted for Eric Hagelbacher, the German, by a score of 500 to 355.

The latter has yet to win a match in four attempts, while Cochran is virtually out of it with only one victory in three matches.

First Picture Of Fascisti Cabinet

Witness Says Dr. Hall Told Life Was Threatened

New Brunswick, N. J., Nov. 12. — A witness was found today who declared positively that the Rev. Edward Wheeler Hall, the slain rector of the Church of St. John the Evangelist, had told him of having been threatened with bodily harm by a man named Henry.

The witness also quoted Dr. Hall as saying that he had quarreled with his wife repeatedly over Mrs. Eleanor Mills, leader of the church choir, whose body was found beside him under the crabapple tree on the Phillips farm on the morning of Sept. 16.

The witness is Rev. Paul F. P. Hambarzky, former pastor of the Hungarian Reformed church of this city and for ten years an intimate acquaintance of the slain rector.

Dr. Hambarzky said he had talked many times with Dr. Hall regarding the clergyman's relations with Mrs. Mills and his consequent trouble at home and his quotations from these confidential verbal exchanges formed one of the most sensational chapters yet recorded in the double murder mystery which has been replete with sensations from its very inception.

"She is a very cool woman," Dr. Hambarzky quoted Dr. Hall as saying, referring to Mrs. Hall. "She has changed very much lately and I am very much afraid she will do me some bodily harm."

"I do not know what I will do," he went on to say, according to Dr. Hambarzky. "All that I know is that I have to get out. I am in constant fear — has threatened me and told me he will finish me if I do not give up Mrs. Mills."

"Forget Mrs. Mills," Dr. Hambarzky said he counseled his friend, to which Dr. Hall is said to have replied, "I am not going to give up Mrs. Mills. I love her and I cannot give her up. I am going to get out of New Brunswick as soon as I come from my summer vacation."

COURT NEWS

Divorce Pleas Heard

Mae J. Stover of Wellsville, was given a divorce by Judge Moore in common pleas court Friday from Jas. Stover, and was also given the custody of her two children, Thelma and Darrell, aged 10 and 2 years. The parties were married in Mason county W. Va., Nov. 26, 1911, and the wife charged that her husband choked and beat her, and also that he was unfaithful. Stover is in the employ of the Pennsylvania Railroad Co., and owns property in Wellsville.

John E. Sager of East Liverpool, was divorced from Mabel G. Sager Rose, of Oaklyn, Md., the grounds who he claims deserted him and went to Cleveland, where she is cashier in the Hippodrome theater. He married her in Youngstown Dec. 9, 1907. They have one child, Donald aged 11.

A divorce was granted to Sarah Williams from Isaac Williams, to whom she was married on Feb. 6, 1920. She charged that her husband was cruel toward her, failed to provide and reused her medical aid when ill. The parties reside in East Liverpool.

Henry O. Means of Wellsville, was divorced from Fronie D. Means of East Liverpool on grounds of gross neglect of duty. They were married Nov. 18, 1916, and have no children. The question of alimony was settled out of court.

Verna M. Rose, of Lisbon, was divorced in court Friday from John G. Rose, of Oaklyn, Md., the grounds for the action being gross neglect of duty. They were married on Oct. 12, 1917, and the plaintiff claimed and proved that Rose sold their household goods in Clarksburg, W. Va., in 1926, and brought her and her child to the home of her father, K. V. Reed in Lisbon and deserted her.

Charges Misconduct

Samuel Dobbs, implicated with Ralph Raiston and Raymond Pollock, East Liverpool, in the recent robbery of the Chambers store, and convicted in court here recently of having received and concealed stolen property taken from the store, wants the verdict convicting him set aside because of alleged misconduct of one of the jurors in the case and the state's prosecuting witness.

The motion for a new trial was set for hearing before Judge Moore in the common pleas court on Friday, when Atty. St. J. McArthur, representing Dobbs, stated to the court that one of the jurors and the prosecuting witness for the state went to lunch together on the day of the trial and conversed concerning the merits of the case during the noon hour.

The court refused to pass upon the motion and it is probable that the accused juror and the witness in the case will be brought into court to testify concerning the charges, before the motion is disposed of. Dobbs was taken back to his cell in the county jail to await the outcome of the hearing.

POSTOFFICE HERE IS PREPARING FOR CHRISTMAS RUSH

"Deliver all Christmas mail by noon Dec. 25," is the slogan of the post-office officials here, and it has been handed down from the department at Washington to every postoffice in the United States.

It will be only a few days until the rush begins, although extra help is not generally employed much before Dec. 1.

Many people may not realize just how active the local postoffice is during the holiday season, but nevertheless it is about the busiest place in town.

As early as October the postoffice department at Washington began making plans for the rush of Christmas mail, and then special instructions are sent out relative to the receipt and delivery of mails to even the smallest office in the country. Co-operation of merchants and private individuals is being urged by the local postoffice department to mail as early as possible. Postmasters have already been instructed to cooperate with merchants in the handling of parcel post packages, for since the parcel post law became operative, a lot of business that formerly went to the express agencies is now handled through the channels of the postoffice.

It has been estimated by the post-office department that $1,000,000 will be spent this year for extra rail transportation charges, and that at least $500,000 will be spent for extra motor vehicle service.

Then the employment of additional carriers will cost the department between $300,000 and $500,000. On top of these items is the cost of additional tons of twice, used only in the postoffice work, additional amounts of money order blanks, and cost of additional warehouse space at terminal and junction points.

The postoffice Christmas jam is always the worst of the year in all post-offices—big or little. The sooner Christmas mail is delivered, the less work there is to be done at the end of the season.

Mild weather will help a whole lot in the speedy delivery of the holiday mails, but with heavy snows and other elements to contend with, there will be delay in delivery and receipt of mails and the jam at the postoffice will then be worse than ever.

Mail early.

"Where Did You Get That Fur Coat?"

Thus the clash between mother and flapper daughter who gave her young heart to an old lover! The father had failed as business man and husband. The eldest daughter wooed a career. The mother was incidental — just a home-maker. With her house tumbling about her she brought order out of chaos. But not without sacrifice. She scaled every rung in the ladder of emotion and at the pinnacle of success she scored — Failure!

Women's Gloves, $1.19<sup>a</sup> Pr.

Domestic Cape Skins and Imported French Kids, Value to $2.50.

We have just 250 pairs of these gloves which in our opinion is very few considering the wonderful value.

The Cape Skins are of domestic make, single clasp style and are identical in quality with our regular stock gloves which are selling at $2.00 a pair.

Cape Skins, as you know, are of heavier weight than the imported kid and will outwear the finer gloves. Ideal for street wear, driving and general use.

They come in brown shade only, in sizes 5-3-4 to 8.

The Imported French Kid Gloves are two-clasp style of a very fine weight, beautiful soft quality and are light in weight.

In them you may select from shades of black, white, buff, dark gray, tan, brown, with self-stitching. We expect these gloves to go out of the store in a hurry, starting Friday morning, at the Glove Counter, at $1.19 pair.

Things That Men Like

Here is a decorative bag, of printed cotton challie 25 inches long and 17 inches wide. A scalloped edge turns up over a straight edge at the bottom and each scallop has a buttonhole, fastening over a glass button. The bag is supported by a coat hanger, faced at the top and bottom with plain challie and French knots made of heavy zephyr decorate it. Hung in the closet it makes a handy receptacle for soiled collars and handkerchiefs, which are thrust in at the top and fall out at the bottom when the bag is unbuttoned. Men like such conveniences.
